Lobos Earn 6-2 Record

The Lobos had a winning season this year, losing only to ASDB and Ft. Thomas. The big wins were against St. David and Pima, who were held scoreless by the Lobo defense. It was the 3rd winning season for the Lobos and Coach Tom Monico. During Coach Monico's four years at Patagonia, the Lobos have won 19 and lost 10.

Volleyball . . .

Nice Memories

The varsity volleyball team had a tough season, but they played more spectacular ball than their 8-9 record indicates. The Lobettes advanced to the semifinals at the district tournament. VARSITY (FAR LEFT, TOP TO BOTTOM): Char Crawford, Coach Richardson, Tracie Andrews, Kim Patty, Molly Quiroga, Lety Padilla, Connie Patty, Jenny Collins, Michelle Guimond, Telma Lorta, Kathi Berg.

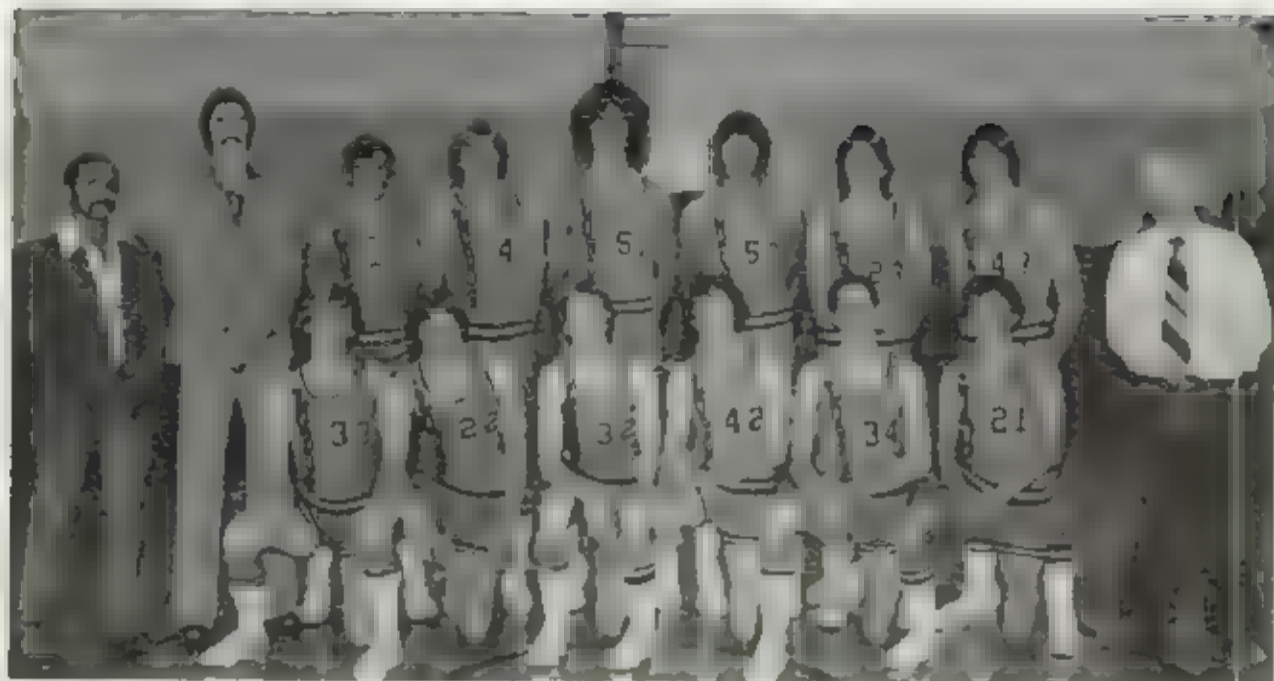

This year the junior varsity team had an up and down season. The team only had 2 returning players, but the freshman-dominated team came on strong in some games. The record stood 6-7, with Patagonia winning the last 2 season matches. JUNIOR VARSITY (UPPER RIGHT, FRONT TO BACK): Coach McCown, Sherri Basinger, Leslie Kunde, Olivia Rodriguez, Carrie Coffman, Rainie Kunde, Terri Basinger, Suzanne Ambrose (mgr.), Mimi LeTarte, Irene Urquides, Tric Mellor, Cindi Young, Jenny Mattox.

This year's junior high squad was large in number, with 16 girls on the team, but small in height. Nevertheless, they improved steadily, and ended with a record of 2 wins, 3 losses. JUNIOR HIGH (MIDDLE RIGHT, FRONT TO BACK): Mary Jimenez (mgr.), Liane Davidson, Christy Murray, Helen Tout, Tacy McKinney, Coleen Sutton, Kathy Barney, Thelma Sanchez, Debbie Arbizo, Melissa Bergen (mgr.), Judy Valenzuela, Jackie Paton, Davette Martin, Velma Sanchez, Coach McCown, Julie Mendoza, Anna Enriquez, Rosalva Sanchez.

Lobos End Season In Fourth South C Slot

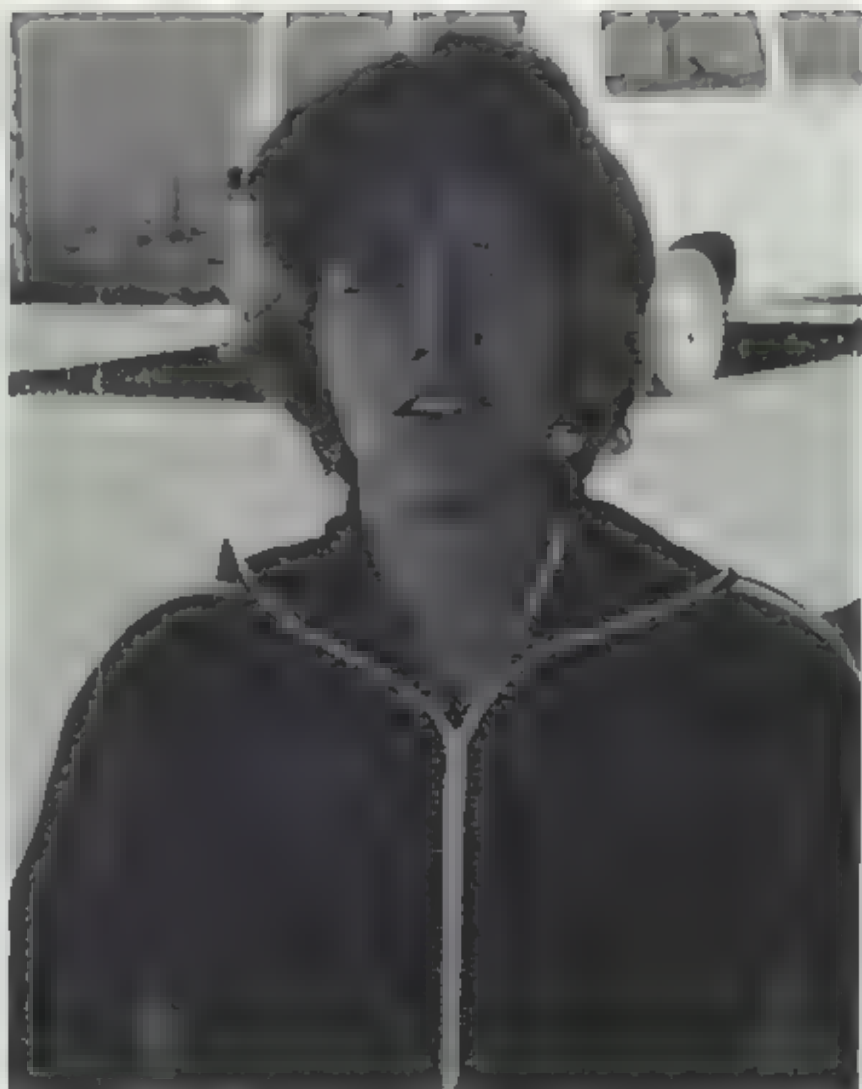

The Lobo Basketball team ended their conference season in a three-way tie for second place with Pima and Fort Thomas. Then, at the District Tournament, the Lobos lost their game with Pima which decided the third team from South C to go to the State tournament. Despite their loss of a trip to State, the Lobos had a winning season, with a 14-9 won and lost record overall. The varsity Lobo team (OPPOSITE PAGE, UPPER LEFT, TOP TO BOTTOM, L TO R): Ass't. Coach Tom Monico, Coach Mike Haddow, Byron McKinney, Phil Cervantes, Sergio Rodriguez, Jaime Valenzuela, Bill Burden, Larry Forcum, Mgr. Tom Ellis, Mike Quinlan, Alan Forrest, Bob Dodson, Mark Berg, Trace Mills, Lee Winkeller.

The junior varsity team was comprised mostly of inexperienced freshmen and sophomores. They improved steadily during the season, ending with a 8-9 won and lost record. A high point of the season was their defeat of the St. David JV team on the home court, after having lost to them in St. David earlier by over 20 points. The junior varsity team (OPPOSITE PAGE, MIDDLE LEFT, TOP TO BOTTOM, L TO R): Coaches Monico and Haddow, Mario Puente, Carlos Yslava, Randy Forrest, Russell Findlay, Robert Valenzuela, Roland Venegas, Reggie Findlay, Lyle Forcum, Steve Padilla, Art Lorta, Brad Quinlan.

"Spoiler" Loboettes

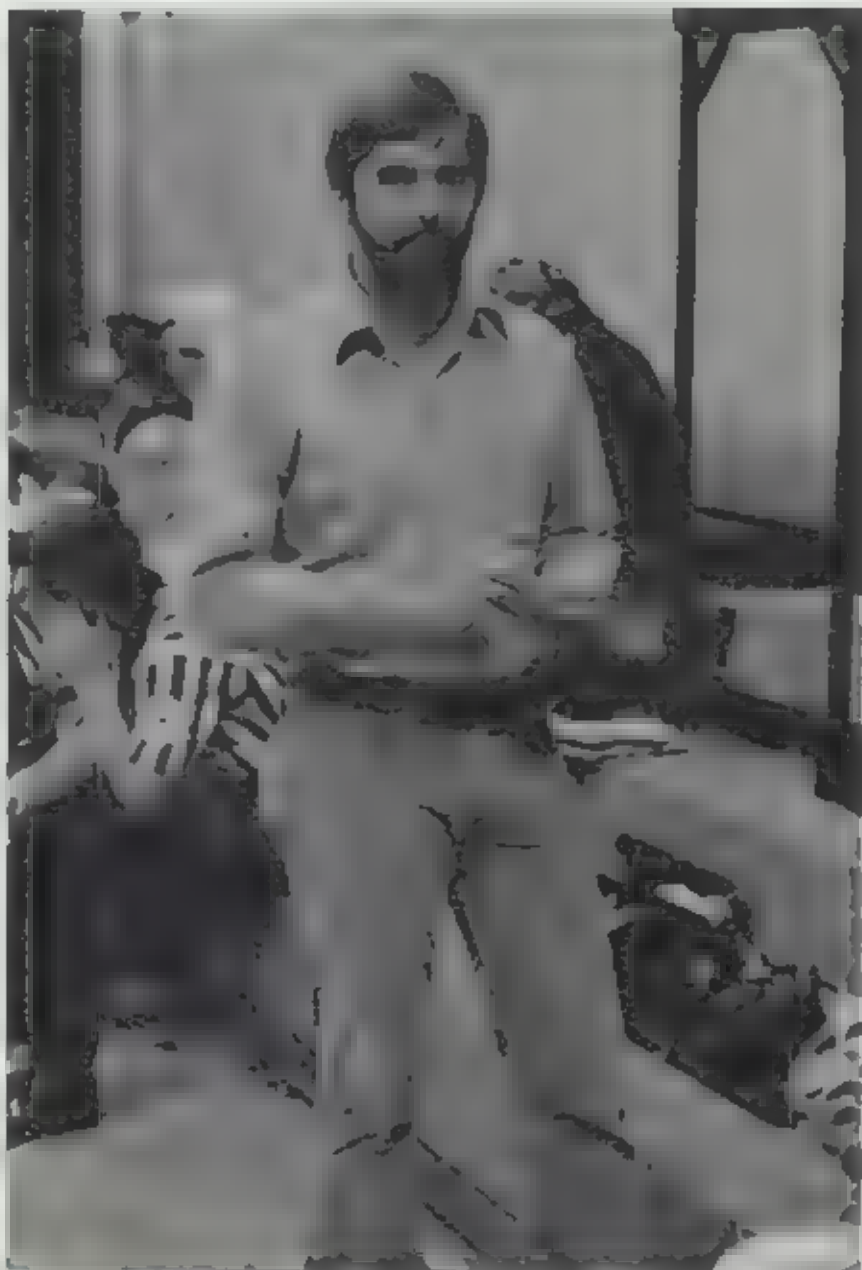

Again Conference Champs

The Loboettes again were "spoilers" at the District tournament. Going into the tournament in third place, the "fired-up" Loboettes defeated both second place St. David and first place Fort Thomas to emerge with the Class C South Championship and a trip to the State Tournament. The Loboettes were defeated by Mayer at the State Tournament. They ended the season with a 17-7 overall record.

The JV team this year was made up of an extremely talented and spirited group of girls. They ended the season with a 7-4 record. The highpoint of the season came with a victory over the St. David JV team, when the Loboettes came out ahead by one point after two overtimes.

Near the end of the season, after several varsity players were no longer playing, some of the JV girls came through and literally saved the season for the varsity team. Seeing lots of action on varsity were Terri Basinger, Jenny Mattox, Leslie Kunde, and Mimi LeTarte. JV Team (OPPOSITE PAGE, MIDDLE, BACK TO FRONT, L TO R): Terri Basinger, Mimi LeTarte, Jenny Mattox, Annette Arbizo, Rainie Kunde, Connie Landers, Leslie Kunde, Tric Mellor (mgr.), and Coach Scott Weiss.

I

Remember Their Cheers, Lifting Spirits

The cheerleaders were kept busy this year supporting their teams. Their encouraging cheers were great in helping the Lobos win. These hardworking ladies were: (TOP, L TO R) Eva Smith, Jenny Collins, Cindi Young, Meg Malanga, and Vicki Hahn (NOT PICTURED). Miss Alice Provencio was the sponsor. (MIDDLE) Pompons and cheerleaders worked together to keep spirits high. (BOTTOM) Jenny demonstrates her cheerleading skills.

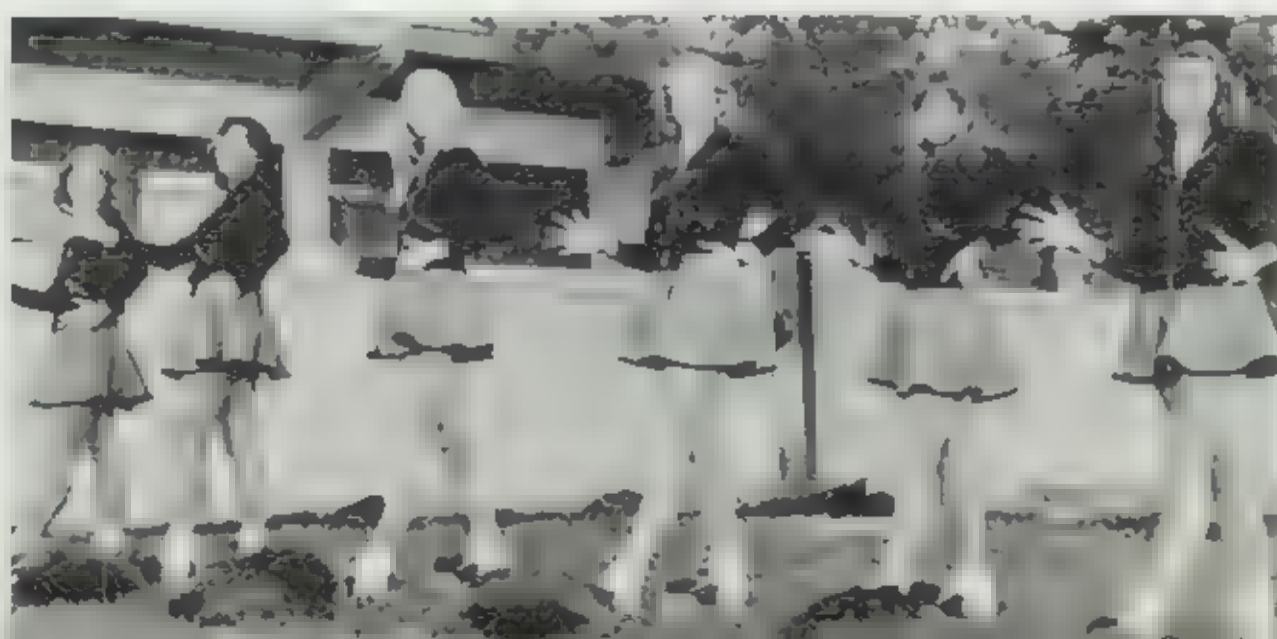

Remember . . .

The Smiles Of

The Pom-Pons

This year's Pom Pons were a very spirited group. They not only did dance routines at halftime for all home games; they also cheered with the cheerleaders. Poms were (TOP, L TO R) Cheryl Maake, Mimi LeFarte, Michele Guimond, Vicki Hahn, Connie Patty, Kim Patty. (MIDDLE) Suzi Mayson became Pom for basketball season, replacing Vicki Hahn, who became a cheerleader. Miss Provencio was the group's sponsor.

Wet Weather Hampers Spring Sports Program

It wasn't a good year for the start of spring sports. The wettest January and February in history kept the PUHS practice fields wet right up to the first baseball game and track meets. The Lobos lost their first four baseball games, all to Class B through AA schools. The yearbook went to press before the start of conference play. However, Coach Tom Monico felt optimistic about the season.

The Boys' track program really got going, after starting up last year following a lapse of several years. The boys got new uniforms, and new foam rubber pits were purchased for both boys and girls to use. Returning state medal winners were Ben Mejia, Mike Quinlan, Justin Johnson and Trace Mills.

Last Year's

South C Champs

The girls' track team, State Class C South champions last year, looked forward to more triumphs in Spring, 1978. Most of the team returned, since there were no seniors on last year's team. The girls won their first meet against Class AAA Buena High. Returning state medalists were Connie Patty, Vicki Hahn, Kim Patty, Josie Yslava, Michele Guimond and Tric Mellor.

Student council members earned well while they led the school this year. They had a lot of fun while doing their jobs. The Student Council has even financed a trip to the state workshop. For the first time the council has set out for the state with a number of members. The council members are: Trace Mills, Mary Lou, Ted Morero, Mike Banger, Robert, Jean Collins, Sean Carey, Randy Forest, Jim Dodson, Judy Valenzuela, Jeff Miller, Ted Miller, Carl Young, Randy Forrest, Paul Schwartz, Judy Alletson, Craig Smith, Suzanne Ambrose (treasurer), Telma Lorta (secretary), Mike Proctor (president), and Bob Dodson (vice-president).

Seniors Make Munchies Work

This year Munchies members worked hard to make more profits than ever before. There were about twenty stock holders who worked at break, lunch and after school, selling the regular goodies, from Hostess cakes, Frito-lays, Crispy, and Pepsi Cola companies. Munchies, Inc., is an extension of the Free Enterprise class for seniors.

TV Media Tries For A Successful Year

Clubs Spend Active Year

This year FBLA had one major moneymaking project, selling metal Social Security cards. They attended a workshop at the University of Arizona and a convention at Arizona State University. A dinner was cooked and served by members honoring the club officers. The members of the club also typed and mailed letters for the Cancer Society. Officers were Molly Quiroga, Pres.; Lety Padilla, Vice-Pres.; Kathi Berg, Sec'y.; Telma Lorta, Parliamentarian; ChaCha Quiroga, Historian, and Tracy Grombly, Treasurer. TOP LEFT: Lety pauses in her typing project to pose for the camera. TOP RIGHT: Mr. Barela studies. BOTTOM LEFT: Molly and Lety confer. BOTTOM RIGHT: Mr. Barela works. FHA Hosts Convention

VICA Sends Delegates

VICA had a busy year, beginning in the fall when they sent a delegation to Yuma for the fall conference where state and district officers were elected. Their moneymaking project was service clinic held at PUHS. They also attended spring conference, skill olympics, and competed in the Plymouth trouble shooting contest. The highlight of the year was their annual fishing trip. VICA members were (TOP RIGHT, L TO R) Sponsor Mr. Bill Dodson, Mike Basinger, Bob Maake, Lee Winekller, Jim Dodson, Bob Dodson, Ron Moore and Trace Mills. (CENTER RIGHT) Mr. Dodson examines an engine. (BOTTOM MIDDLE RIGHT) "Duh, there was an engine in here yesterday." (BOTTOM RIGHT) Ron Moore looks busy.

Publications And LAC Aid School

Two classes at school which were concerned with learning while doing were Publications and LAC, Library Assistant Club. Both were aids to the total program of the school, keeping students and teachers informed through the yearbook and newspaper and by keeping the library's store of information in usable order.

Publications put out great effort to make this year the best ever. This yearbook is the result of losing sleep over deadlines for pages, many hours of taking pictures, printing pictures, drawing layouts, writing copy, and finally, getting it all together for one big success. The class also put out the Lobo Lingo and a literary magazine.

LAC students, besides working in the library, also helped other teachers and in the office. They helped to order and select new books, as well as keep the library in tip-top shape. LAC members (THIS PAGE, GROUP PICTURE, BACK TO FRONT, L TO R): Mr. Reg LeFever (sponsor), Thelma Lorta, Mark Berg, Sergio Rodriquez, Jaime Valenzuela, Mrs. Wanda Haverty (sponsor), Jim Dodson, Tracie Andrews, Tric Mellor, Susan Gilkey, Kim Patty, Judy Ellefson, Terry Heggins, Tracy Grombly, Char Crawford. (NOT PICTURED): Crystal Davison, Alma Laguna.

This year's band was a spirited group of good musicians, led by new Band Director Robert Westman. The band attended several operas during the year, to gain a good ear for music. They also went on a band trip and played in three parades. Band members were Jenny Collins, Judy Ellefson, Ben Mejia, Ralph Schwartz, Irene Romo, Scott Clark, Cheryl Maake, Mel Muek, Mary Moreno, Albert Romo, Suzanne Sims, Randy Forrest, Suzi Mayson, Rob Moreno, Terry Heggins, Eva Romo, Eva Smith, Rainie Kunde, Kelley Heggins, Mario Chamberlain, Brent Bowdon,

Clubs Encourage Student Talent, Scholarship

Thespian Club gave students a chance to show their acting talents. They presented the courtroom drama THE NIGHT OF JANUARY 16 in February. In May they put on two plays - a hillbilly 3-act HEADIN' FOR A WEDDIN', and a 1-act, THURSDAY MEETS THE WOLFMAN. Thespian members (OPPOSITE PAGE, TOP, BACK TO FRONT, L TO R): Ben Mejia, Bob Moreno, Randy Forrest, Mike Du Toit, Jim Dodson, Ross Fraizer, Alan Forrest, Bob Dodson, Vicki Hahn, Mrs. Rose Piper (sponsor), Becky Collins, Judy Ellefson, Connie Landers, Leah Oliver, Lety Padilla, Char Crawford, Suzi Mayson, Kelli McFarland, Sherri Basinger. Jr. High Drama Shows Creativity And Talent

Miss Richardson had a fine group of talented and creative drama students this year. Among other things, they put on a space soap opera. This year's members were: Debbie Arbizo, Adam Voss, Kim Sottosanti, Jesus Enriquez, Liane Davison, Albert Illeson, Morry Fernandez,

RECEIVING HONORS

Homecoming '78 - A Brand New Experience

Homecoming '78 was different from other years, mainly because this year there was a parade. The Queen and her attendants rode the convertible in the parade (TOP, OPPOSITE PAGE) and they were crowned at halftime of the homecoming game. Royalty for Homecoming '78 were King Mike Basinger and Queen Tracie Andrews (BOTTOM RIGHT). Senior attendants were Mark Berg and Leah Oliver. Junior attendants were Russell Findlay and Tric Mellor. Sophomore attendants were Brad Quinlan and Kathi Berg, and Freshmen attendants were Randy Forrest and Terry Basinger. (OPPOSITE PAGE BOTTOM, LEFT TO RIGHT) Randy Forrest, Terry Basinger, Brad Quinlan, Kathi Berg, Tracie Andrews, Mike Basinger, Leah Oliver, Mark Berg, Tric Mellor and Russell Findlay. Tracie Andrews shows off her cake at the Homecoming dance (TOP RIGHT).

Rose Garden Is Theme Of Sweetheart Ball

This year the Sweetheart Ball was one of the best ever but on by FHA. It was held in the old gym and the decorations were fantastic. The colors were red and white, and there were red and white paper roses on tables and pillars. There was also a pond at the center of the dance floor with real flowers floating on it.

Poem To The Seniors

*Another year goes passing by, Another
Prom is here, To some this brings a joyous smile, to others brings a tear.
For four years you have tread a path
From dawn to setting sun. But now the path gets steeper and the climb is just begun. We're very glad to know you.
We'll miss you when you've gone. And to The Class of "78". We dedicate our Prom.*

The Juniors

King Alan Queen Molly

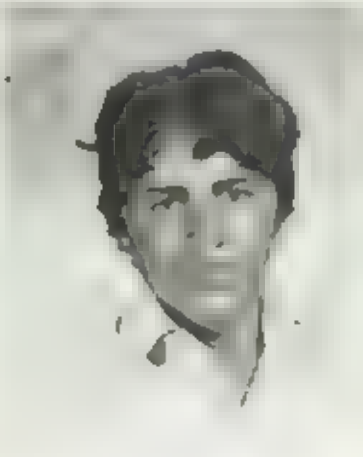

Jr.-Sr. Prom Theme:

"A Time For Us"

The Juniors successfully put on the Junior-Senior Prom of '78. The music was provided by 20-20. The decoration theme was "After 6". The servers were dressed as old fashioned bar maids and bartenders. The Juniors presented all the guests with souvenir scrolls as a memory token for years to come. Royalty was crowned at 10:00 by Prom Chairman, Josie Yslava. King and Queen were Alan Forrest and Molly Quiroga. Prince and Princess were Phil Cervantes and Susan Galkey.

Varied Interests

Molly Quiroga and Mike Fleming (OPPOSITE PAGE, BOTTOM LEFT) were elected Mr. and Miss 4-H this year. They were picked on their achievements in 4-H and their contributions to the club.

Judy Ellefson (OPPOSITE PAGE, BOTTOM RIGHT) was elected state FHA president for this year. State officers are elected by votes from members of other state chapters.

Alan Forrest (TOP LEFT) was chosen to attend Boy's State. It was held at NAU in Flagstaff during last summer. Jenny Collins (BOTTOM LEFT) went to Girls' State at the University of Arizona in Tucson. Students for Girls' and Boys' State are chosen each year by the faculty on scholarship and leadership.

PUHS Students Excel In Conference Sports

PUHS students took conference honors in many sports. In baseball, for the previous season, three students were honored. Mike Basinger, OPPOSITE PAGE, UPPER LEFT, was named to the All-Conference and All-State first teams. Mike Quinlan and Mark Berg, UPPER MIDDLE, were also honored in baseball. Mike was named to 1st team, All-Conference as catcher, and Mark was named to 2nd team, All-Conference, as third base.

In volleyball, Connie Patty, OPPOSITE PAGE, BOTTOM LEFT, was chosen to the All-Conference and All-Tournament first teams. Tracie Andrews, MIDDLE RIGHT, was also chosen for the All-Conference first team.

In football, Alan Forrest, UPPER RIGHT, was chosen defensive safety on the 1st All-Conference team. Jim Dodson, LOWER RIGHT, was chosen 1st team All-Conference offensive guard. Both Alan and Jim were chosen to the All-State team as well.

Honors Go To Athletes

Award Winners Represent PUHS In Competition

Dear Rosendo,

It's been almost a full two years for us and in that time we have enjoyed many good times and suffered many bad (especially in the recent past). But that is the past and I hope to see we have a future together.

We can work on the good and fade out the bad.

No love is all good. There are always bad times which can sometimes do more good in bringing two people together than they can do harm to tear them apart if that love holds true.

God knows our love has been tested. So far, it has passed them all. I hope and pray that it always will.
